ACA Accreditation

This logo means that Peconic Dunes 4-H Camp is a member of and has met the standards of the American Camp Association (ACA), the national camping organization that conducts research on youth camping and promotes best practices from risk management to staff training to program quality. ACA collaborates with experts from the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Red Cross, and other youth-serving agencies to assure the current practices at the camp reflect the most up-to-date, research-based standards in camp operation and youth development.

Before Camp

Camper Health Forms

The NYS Department of Health requires a current and complete health profile on every camper. You will complete a health history during registration. After registration you will need to log into your Peconic Dunes account to upload:

- ▶ Physician form- completed and signed by your child's physician
- ▶ Immunization record
- ▶ Allergy plan (if your child has a life threatening allergy)
- ▶ Your child's medications

To upload your Physician Form, log into your Peconic Dunes account, select additional options then document center. Uploading forms is the same process as attaching a file to an email...it's easy! To add a medication, click on your camper's name then manage medications. Please be sure to complete the health profile in its entirety. If you need any help, please call the camp office at (631) 852 – 8629.

IMPORTANT: The New York State Department of Health prohibits the camp from admitting children with missing or incomplete medical forms. All health forms are due by May 2nd.

Preparing Your Child

Camp can be a great experience for kids. To help your child get the most out of camp, you can use the following words of encouragement.

1. "You'll have the opportunity to try new things." Camp has a lot of stuff you can't do at home or school. It's a place to discover something brand new that you're good at or enjoy.
2. "You can meet new people and make new friends." Many returning campers can't wait to reunite with their camp friends, some of whom will be lifetime friends. Plus, our international staff help campers learn about other countries and cultures.
3. "You'll be able to be on your own and show you can handle things by yourself." One of the biggest benefits of camp is the development of independence. Being away from home and caring for oneself helps kids gain autonomy and show responsibility.
4. "You can show off your strengths and special skills." During daily classes and evening programs, campers will have lots of opportunities to display their talents and take on leadership roles.
5. "You'll have the chance to work with others and be helpful." At camp, your child will be asked to do chores, keep the cabin neat and clean, and help at other times. Being helpful and cooperative is a positive trait and a sign of maturity.
6. "There will be many supportive camp staff who can answer your questions and listen to any concerns." If your child has a problem (i.e. not knowing where to go; not sure what activity to choose; someone not being nice, etc.), your child can always ask for help.

Preventing Homesickness

Homesick feelings are normal for many campers even if they have been to camp before. There are many things parents/guardians can do to prevent homesickness and help your child adjust to camp.

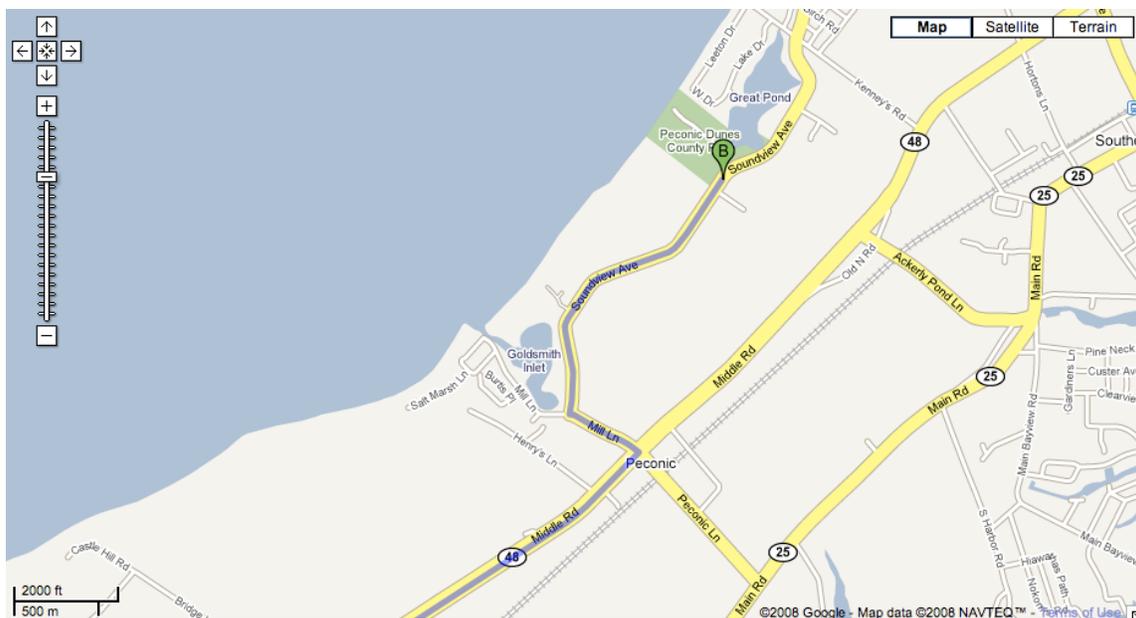

1. Visit the camp in person or online so that your child will become familiar with the camp and its programs. The more a child knows about the camp, the greater the comfort level.
2. Be positive about all the activities and opportunities camp has to offer. Highlight activities that aren't available in school or at home.
3. Prepare for camp together. This may include shopping for camp supplies and packing.
4. Practice some skills that will help the adjustment to camp life, like walking around at night with a flashlight or living out of a suitcase for a weekend.
5. Avoid sharing your worries with your camper. Sometimes, what parents are feeling is a form of "child sickness", that is, they are anticipating missing their children as much as children may miss home. Saying "I'm really going to miss you," or "We're not going to have as much fun without you," may increase a child's anxiety.
6. Set reasonable expectations for your camper. If you went to camp, share your experience but remember, each child is unique and leave room for your child to have his or her own unique experience. If you did not go to camp, just be positive and optimistic as you would in preparing your child for any new experience.

Facebook is a great tool to connect with other parents and ask for advice. You can also contact the camp office and we'll be happy to help.

FAQs

Cabins, Bathrooms, Showers: Cabins are rustic and campers sleep in bunk beds. There is no air-conditioning, but counselors may have a box fan in the cabin. All campers live in cabins with at least two counselors. Cabin assignments are made according to a child's age and grade. Bathrooms are centrally located within the cabin or just outside. Showers are located in the Sandcastles for girls and the Shower House for boys.

Cabin Requests:

- At registration, each camper may request to bunk with ONE friend in the same grade.
- Ask the friend to also request you. When BOTH campers ask to bunk with each other, we almost always work it out for them to be in the same bunk together.
- Write us a note or email if there are any situations we need to take into account when making cabin assignments. We will do our best to accommodate your needs.
- Please understand that sometimes there is no way of honoring your request because of age, space or other restrictions.

Please Don't...

- Call the office and ask about cabin assignments. You will receive an email with your child's cabin assignment the week before his/her session.
- Request a specific counselor
- Request a specific cabin. Cabins are assigned by age and gender for each sessions.
- Assume that your child will have the same cabin or counselor as in past years. Each year, cabin assignments are based on the current camp population and usually change year to year.

Camp Visits/Early Dismissals: We believe camp provides an opportunity for youth to acquire self-reliance and confidence through achievement in a new environment. Except for an emergency, we ask that parents/guardians DO NOT visit campers during their stay. Any person visiting the camp, for any reason, must check in at the camp office upon arrival. If family plans require you to pick up your child before the end of the camp week, please contact the office in advance so we can make the necessary arrangements.

Camper Attire: Kids get dirty at camp. We suggest your child not wear anything you wouldn't want stained. Female campers cannot wear string bikinis, and clothing with obscene or offensive text and graphics is prohibited.

Cell Phones: Cell phones are not permitted at camp for a variety of reasons: we want campers to disconnect from technology; cell phones are expensive and can easily be lost or damaged at camp; they can be misused. Please do not send your child to camp with a cell phone or mail one during the week. Cell phones will be confiscated and returned to parents at departure.

Laundry: There are no laundry facilities for campers' use. Campers should pack enough clothes for the entire week of camp. In the event of an emergency, the staff will arrange laundry service for a camper.

Laundry service is provided to campers registered for Super Saturdays and CITs.

Meals: Campers eat meals with their cabins under the mess tent. Snacks are available mid-afternoon and water to refill water bottles is available throughout the day. Water stations are also located throughout the camp. Campers with dietary restrictions should list their allergies/restrictions on the health history and physician form. We will do our best to accommodate requests.

Problems with Other Campers: Staff is trained in conflict resolution skills and will be available to help any camper. We consider our community to be family and expect all members to treat each other with respect. We will contact parents whenever their child is involved in an unresolved conflict with another camper.

Refunds: Please refer to our refund policy on our website at <http://www.peconicdunes.com>

Security: A gate attendant is on duty to monitor vendors and visitors. All visitors must be checked in before entering the camp property. Our staff is advised to address any unknown persons on the property and escort them to the camp office.

Special Needs: If your child requires any sort of special accommodation (i.e. medication dispensation, physical adaptation, verbal, or otherwise), please notify the camp when you register. We will do our best to make reasonable accommodations within the limits of our outdoor camp environment.

Telephone: It is important for the safety of all campers that our phone lines be available for incoming and outgoing calls. For this reason, we ask that you refrain from calling camp unless you need to change his/her pick-up time or there is an emergency requiring your child's immediate attention. To reach someone in an emergency after 5:00 pm, please dial 4 to reach the health center. For an emergency after 9:00 pm, dial 9 to reach the health director's cabin.

Temperatures:

The average air temperatures in July and August range from a low of 63°F to a high of 81°F. The average water temperature in July and August ranges from 68°F to 72°F.

Tipping

The American Camp Association discourages tipping to prevent any sort of favoritism and inequities that may arise. While tipping is not prohibited, we ask parents to be fair and reasonable when expressing gratitude to counselors.

- Alcoholic beverages
- Illegal drugs or controlled substances

- Non-compliant behavior; failure to comply with camp rules and directions of camp staff or failure to adjust to camp routines;
- Non-participation: cutting activities, refusing to participate in programs and activities
- Disruptive behavior;

At Camp

Meeting Your Child's Counselors

Upon meeting your child's counselors, introduce yourself and feel free to share any information about your child that you think it is important for them to know.

Health Center

Medication drop-off: If your child requires medication during the time s/he is at camp, you will drop off the medication with the camp Health Director on Sunday for overnight campers and on Monday for day campers. The camp Health Director can only administer over-the-counter and/or prescription medications following orders that are written specifically for the individual camper by their physician. Please only bring the amount of pills that are necessary to be dispensed for the week of camp and leave the rest at home. (Unused medicine that is not picked up at departure will be discarded.)

IMPORTANT: Medication MUST be in the original prescription bottle with the dosage on the prescription bottle matching the doctor's written instructions on the Physician Form.

Overnight Camper Check-In

Overnight campers will be emailed their drop off and pick up times the week prior to their camp session. Drop off times will be assigned by cabin ranging from 1:20pm to 2:40pm. If you are dropping off multiple campers please come to the latest time you receive. Once the gates open, our parking attendants will direct you where to park. Once you've parked, our staff will direct all parents/guardians to Camper Registration, and all campers to Health Check-In. Typically, both lines finish around the same time. We recommend all parents and campers reconnect around the camp fire ring. At Health Check-In, campers will be inspected for lice and their temperature taken to ensure fitness for camp. Please do not go to your child's cabin before s/he has successfully completed the Health Check-In.

IMPORTANT: The New York State Department of Health prohibits pets of any kind on campus (dogs, etc.). Please leave your pet in your car while on camp grounds.

Day Camper Check-In

Camp activities begin promptly at 9:00am each day. We ask that you drop off your child between 8:35 and 8:55am each day. The Gate Attendant will direct you where to drive and drop-off your child. The Day Camp Coordinator will be present to sign your child in and ensure that he or she joins his/her cabin. If it is your child's first day at camp, he or she will take a swimming test first thing in the morning (weather permitting). Please have your child wear a bathing suit under his or her camp attire. It's a good idea to apply sunscreen before leaving home.

Camp Store

If parents want their children to purchase camp clothing and souvenirs from the camp store, they must deposit money into their camper's account during registration. If you forgot to do so, please contact the camp office prior to the start of your camper's session. Please do not bring cash to camp. Peconic Dunes is not responsible for lost or stolen cash sent to camp with a camper. The camp store is open during drop off on Sunday and Monday through Friday during siesta 1:00 to 2:00pm.
